

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They help websites function properly, improve user experience, and provide information about how the site is used.

2. How We Use Cookies

ProLog Solutions Ltd uses cookies to:

- Ensure the website operates correctly
- Improve website performance and usability
- Understand how visitors use our website

We do not use cookies to collect sensitive personal data.

3. Types of Cookies We Use

- Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off.

- Performance & Analytics Cookies

These cookies help us understand how visitors interact with our website by collecting anonymous information (e.g. pages visited, time spent on site).

- Functional Cookies

These cookies allow the website to remember preferences and improve functionality.

4. Managing Cookies

You can control or delete cookies through your browser settings. You can also choose to accept or reject non-essential cookies via our cookie banner.

Please note that disabling cookies may affect website functionality.

5. Third-Party Cookies

Some cookies may be placed by third-party services (such as analytics providers). These third parties are responsible for their own cookie and privacy practices.

6. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Cookies Policy periodically. Updates will be published on this page.
